

Acquired Hemophilia A and Hashimoto's Thyroiditis in a patient with Idiopathic Multicentric Castleman's Disease: A Case report

rana durmus¹, Urshila Durani², Elizabeth Cathcart-Rake², Ariela L. Marshall², Angela Dispenzieri³, and Thomas Habermann²

¹Istanbul Universitesi-Cerrahpasa

²Mayo Clinic

³Mayo Clinic

May 22, 2020

Abstract

53-year-old male with iMCD developed hematoma at biopsy site. He was diagnosed with acquired hemophilia A and Hashimoto's both were associated with iMCD. He has been in remission without recurrence of hemophilia after Rituximab 375 mg/M² weekly for 1 month, and 375 mg/M² every 2 months for maintenance.

Hosted file

Case Report-Revised.rtf available at <https://authorea.com/users/325128/articles/453168-acquired-hemophilia-a-and-hashimoto-s-thyroiditis-in-a-patient-with-idiopathic-multicentric-castleman-s-disease-a-case-report>

