

Fig. 1: Surgical steps. A: surgical positioning with a cushion under the shoulders and a head ring to support the head. B: marking the area of the thyroid cartilage to be resected, 3 mm away from the midpoint of the cartilage height. C: cartilage appearance after resectioning the prominence. D: smoothing and flattening of the edges of the remaining thyroid cartilage. E: resected portion of the thyroid cartilage, in a “V” shape. F: immediate postoperative aspect of the surgical wound, in profile.