

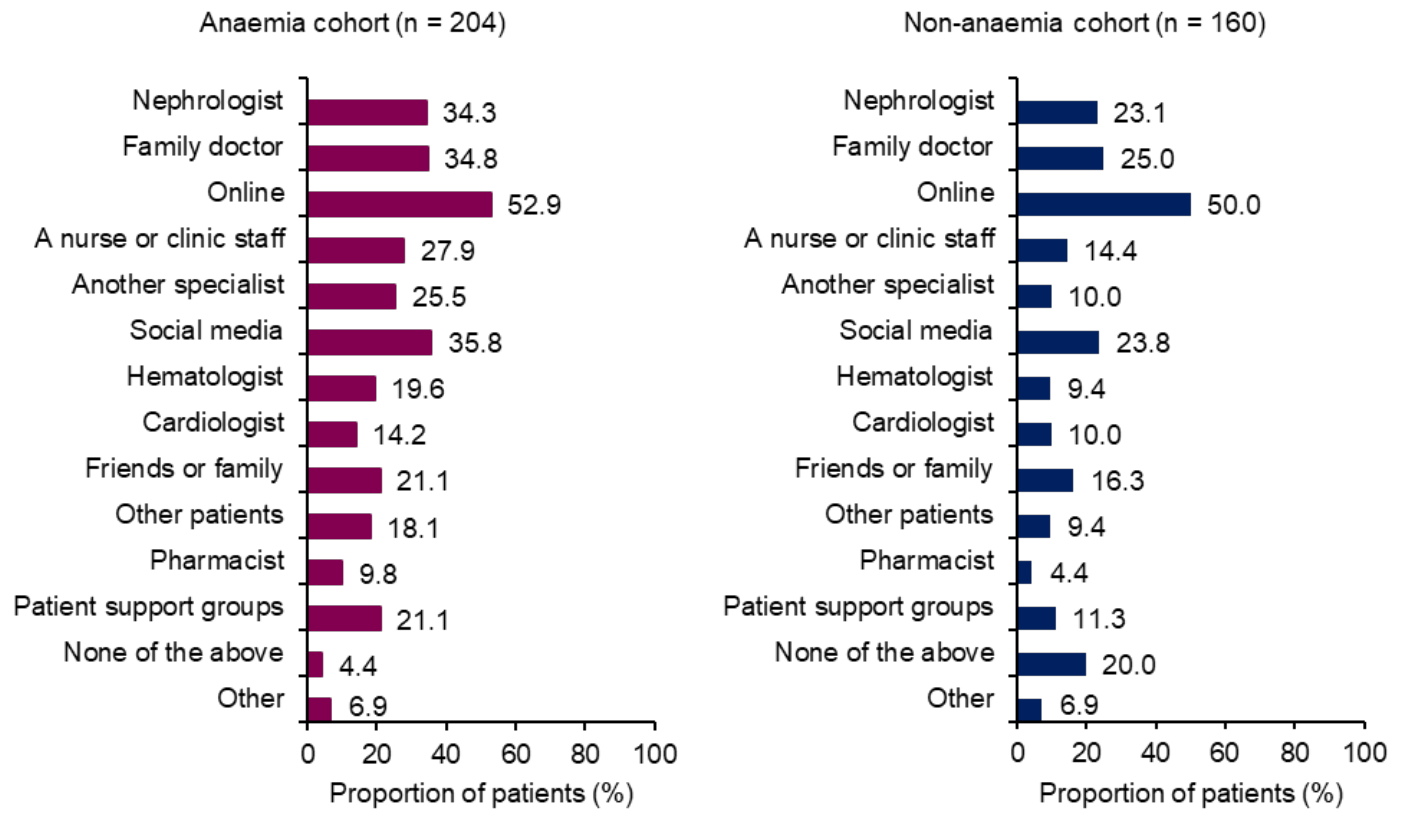

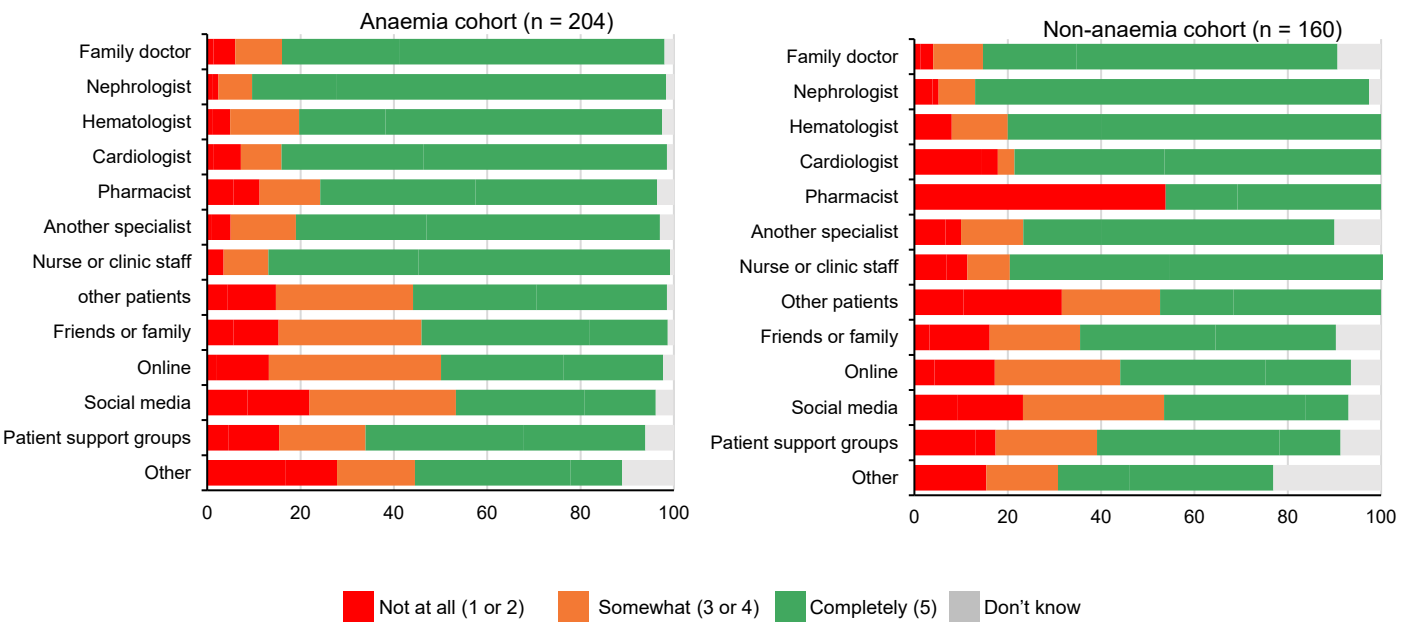

Figure 6. (A) Sources used by patients to look for information about anaemia, and (B) trust in the information received from these sources

A

Patients were asked the following question 'Where have you looked for information about anaemia, or received information about anaemia from?'

B

Patients were asked the following question 'And how much do you trust the information you get from these sources? From 1 being 'not at all' to 5 being 'completely'?'