

Figure 3: Post-operative MRI the spine. Sagittal T2 (a) and gadolinium enhanced T1 weighted images (b) show near complete resection of the spinal tumor with small nodular residual tumor at the cranial extent a well as significant cord decompression with reduced cord edema cranial and caudal to the operative site.