

Figure 5

The 77 K fluorescence spectrum of thylakoid membranes isolated from rice leaves grown under different light conditions. The spectrum data were normalized at 685 nm as 100. Data are shown as means (plots) with standard errors (shadows) obtained from independent biological replicates (n = 3).